FOR CHURCH CARE TEAMS

Caregiving Care Cards

Eight cards to leave with a tired family caregiver.

These eight cards are for the quiet moment at the end of a hospital or home visit with someone caring for a sick spouse, an aging parent, or a child. Each card holds a verse and one gentle line, so you can leave something steady in the hands of someone who gives so much.

A card never replaces your presence, so listen first and let the card be what stays behind when you leave.

How to print

1. Print pages 2 and 3 on US Letter paper at 100 percent, with page scaling turned off.
2. Cardstock works best, though plain paper is fine if that is what you have.
3. Cut along the dashed lines for four cards per page, each 4.25 by 5.5 inches.
4. The backs are blank, so you can write a short note and sign your name before you hand one over.
5. Each card also fits a standard A2 envelope, if you would rather mail it.
